From the President's Desk Faye Dudek

Dear All Wallingford Camera Club Members,

When I find a quote, I look up the author and find that some have interesting backgrounds. Leon Levinstein, I found, was an intriguing photographer.

Don't we all look to find and stop to take photographs that put a gleam in our eyes. Lots of thought and time go into all that we do to take a photo.

Enjoy! Continue taking all the wonderful photographs that put a gleam in your eyes and a smile on your face.

About the Wallingford Camera Club

The Wallingford Camera Club offers a friendly, pressure-free environment where anyone interested in photography can learn and share photography information. Our club has members of every skill level, from professional photographers to vacation-snapshot photographers.

The WCC holds monthly meetings at Gaylord Hospital in Wallingford, CT. Our meetings are on the second Wednesday of every month, and begin promptly at 7:00PM. Some meetings are competition nights, where the members submit their work for judging. Other meetings, known as "Program Nights", offer instructional and hands-on training.

Meetings are open to the public, so feel free to come by and join us! However, if you'd like to submit your photos in competition, you must be a member. The WCC membership fees for per year are: Single members $30; Couples $40; Senior members $25; Senior couples $35; Junior members $20. Ribbons are awarded based on the results of the prior month's competition.

Icebergs on Cape Cod by Mark Fioravanti

So what do you photograph on Friday the 13? Well, Diana, Eloise and I went to Wellfleet, MA to photograph Ice Bergs because you normally don't see them this far south. We stopped at Wellfleet harbor first and got some close ups of the Ice Bergs that you may have seen on TV. However we arrived at high tide and could not walk among them. We next went to Duck Harbor which is part of the National Seashore and that is where we saw the pack ice. It went on for miles. From where we were on the beach it was 14 miles to P-town and the view was just amazing. We spent all of 3 hours taking photos before returning home as well as having dinner at a little barbecue place along the way back.

A Winter's Day at Wellfleet, MA by Diana Diliberto

Looking out from Wellfleet was incredible! It's hard to put into words. And, hanging with Mark and Eloise is always the best.
